

By subscribing to INMEX, our organization affirms these principles:

- ◆ Our organizations spend tens of millions of dollars annually on meetings, conferences and conventions. As such, we recognize that we are key stakeholders in the meetings industry.
- ◆ Given our role in the hotel industry, we recognize that transparency in the industry is a key component to holding successful meetings and conventions.
- ◆ With access to information about hotel companies and destination cities, our organizations can better plan successful meetings and conventions.
- ◆ All hotel workers deserve to be paid fairly for their work. No one deserves to be mired in poverty while working full-time.
- ◆ All workers have a right to work in an environment free from discrimination, intimidation and harassment.
- ◆ Our organizations want to conduct sound, successful meetings in environments that are free from the threats of labor disputes.
- ◆ As subscribers to INMEX, we hereby pledge to work closely with INMEX staff to ensure we have a comprehensive understanding of where we're spending our meeting and convention dollars.

By signing this pledge sheet, we agree to become a subscriber to the Informed Meetings Exchange.
